Subsidiarity

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the Catholic bishops of the United States identify the four main principles of the Church’s social teaching and apply them to some concrete issues. This is not to tell the faithful for whom or against whom to vote, but instead to help them form their consciences in accordance with God’s truth as they approach this often-challenging decision. The four main principles are the Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Solidarity, and Subsidiarity. They are all interrelated. This bulletin focuses on Subsidiarity, and the other three principles are covered in three other bulletins in this series. —★

The principle of Subsidiarity reminds us that larger institutions in society (such as the state or federal government) should not overwhelm or interfere with smaller or local institutions (such as the family, local schools, or the Church community). Yet larger institutions have essential responsibilities when local institutions cannot adequately protect human dignity, meet human needs, or advance the common good.¹ Subsidiarity reflects the essential freedom and innate human dignity of each person while also recognizing the role higher authorities, such as government, can play to ensure that all people are able to thrive.

Respecting this principle promotes the flourishing of each individual person and the realization of the common good. As Pope Francis has explained, the principle of Subsidiarity “allows everyone to assume his or her own role in the healing and destiny of society.”² By participating in public life locally, each person and the voluntary associations of civil society to which they belong can be “leaven,” bringing “enrichment” to neighbors, to communities, and to society as a whole.³

“Respecting Subsidiarity promotes the flourishing of each individual and the realization of the common good.”

As we assist the faithful to take up the call to be “leaven” in society, we seek policies that allow individuals and communities to flourish.

- As the bishops teach in Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, “Family—based on marriage between a man and a woman—is the first and most fundamental unit of society: a sanctuary for the creation and nurturing of children. It should be defended and strengthened, not redefined, undermined, or further distorted.”⁴

- It is important to uphold parents’ rights and responsibilities to care for their children, including the right to direct their children’s education in accordance with their convictions, with support rather than interference from the state.⁵ These include the rights of parents to send their child to the school of their choice, and to protect their child from “gender ideology” at school.
- Moreover, laws, programs, and initiatives should strengthen the social safety net and improve family stability. For example, parents should receive support through work, training, assistance with childcare, health-care, housing and transportation.⁶ The Earned Income Tax Credit and child tax credits continue to be important vehicles to help low-income families out of poverty.
- The Church’s special concern for the poor requires the pursuit of social and economic policies which foster jobs with decent working conditions and just wages, and which support the rights of workers, including the ability to organize and bargain collectively without reprisal.⁷

As we pursue the principle of Subsidiarity in our public policies, we pray for all families and for those in poverty, and we support their efforts to exercise their rights and responsibilities in society.

SAVE THE DATE!!! Our Annual Free Lasagna Dinner will be held in Foeller Hall on Sunday, December 8th at 5:30 pm. We will be having a raffle that has a 100 pounds of hamburger winner valued at more than $500.00 as First prize. Second prize will be half-a-hog and Third prize will be $200.00 cash! As always, we will be having our silent and live auctions. We need everyone's help to donate a basket or items for the silent and live auctions. If you have a business or service you would like to donate, please see Kathy Gerasimof or a member of HOST Guild. We would like to have all the baskets for the silent auction no later than Monday, November 11th. That week, we will be displaying the items with bid sheets in the hallway. As in the past, please list all items in your basket along with the value of the basket. The baskets can be dropped off at the church during office hours or make arrangements and a member can pick them up. Items for the live auction will need to be dropped off the week of November 18th. We have several beautiful quilts in our live auction this year, including a baby quilt. New this year, we are having "$10.00 Grab Bags" for purchase the night of the dinner. We just need you to put an item valued at at least $10.00 in a sealed bag. Those items can also be dropped off after November 11th. Any questions about the dinner, raffle, auction or grab bags, please call Kathy Gerasimof at 419-947-6407 or Carol Ferguson at 740-360-8577.
