FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings in the Lord, Jesus Christ!

Fr. Keller has gone and it is sad, but we look forward now to Fr. Daniel Colby joining us. Fr. Daniel has included a note introducing himself. One of his favorite saints is St. Maximilian Kolbe and I think he does not feel worthy of being associated with him, so he is going by Fr. Daniel. Please keep him in prayer as he begins his priestly ministry in parish life. We welcome Fr. Daniel to our parishes!

One parishioner recently said to me that they were sad when the priests leave and were worried about the changes. Of course, life always changes. One constant though is our shepherd Jesus Christ, who never abandons us. The motto of the Carthusians is "Stat crux dum volvitur orbis," which in Latin means, "The cross is steady while the world turns." Change is hard, but "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever" (Hebrews 13:8).

In this weekend's first reading, when the human shepherds fail, God says that He himself will pasture the flock. The Responsorial Psalm says "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want" (Psalm 23). In the Gospel reading, Jesus has such compassion on the people that despite not even being able to eat and rest, He continues to teach them many things. Whatever life's changes and challenges are, our Lord is no longer bound by bodily limitations and so He is always here for us, especially in the Eucharist, within Mass and outside of Mass. The cross is Jesus' love for us. The cross remains, so let us look upon His love and be at peace. For as St. Paul tells us in the second reading, Jesus is our peace.

May God bless you!
 Fr. Shikina

FROM FR. DANIEL

Hello, parishioners of Sacred Hearts! I'm Father Daniel Colby, your new parochial vicar who will be arriving the weekend of July 27-28. I look forward to serving this community for the next few years. I served here as a seminarian from 2021-2022, so I know several of you already.

A little about myself. I was raised in Raleigh, North Carolina as a Presbyterian with my parents and three younger brothers. I went to Virginia Tech (go Hokies!) and graduated in 2013 with a degree in Product Design. I moved to Columbus in 2014 for work, and had a conversion to the Catholic faith after I learned my Dad was entering the Church. I entered RCIA and was received at the Easter Vigil in 2016. Within RCIA, I first felt the calling to the priesthood, and after entering the Church I began seminary at the Josephinum for the Diocese of Columbus in 2017. After two years of philosophy, four years of theology, and a pastoral year here with you all, I was ordained on May 18th of this year. I'm just returning from a summer Spanish immersion at a parish in Oakland, California.

I look forward to serving you at the altar and in the confessional and visiting all the ministries here, especially the PSR program and the Knights. I will also be working in prison ministry up at Marion Correctional. I hope to see old friends and new faces in the next few weeks as I get settled here. Please introduce yourself when you see me if I've not gotten to meet you yet.

In Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,
Fr. Daniel Colby

CONGRATULATIONS TO DOUG AND JASON, our latest two new e-members that have joined the Knights of Columbus 14671 online from the information right here in our church bulletin. They have joined in with over two million men who belong to the Catholic men's Fraternal Knights of Columbus founded by Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney in March of 1882. By joining now, it is still free and we are still welcoming, as well as encouraging you to take that step. We will extend our hand in friendship to you as a brother Knight. If you need help signing up or if you do not have internet or a smart phone, please let either of our Priests know or myself, Carl Ferguson. I will be willing to help. You can call me at 740-360-4340.

Meanwhile, as the Knights of Columbus continues to grow, we are looking forward to adding you to our roster.

Carl C. Ferguson

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY, Jesus tells His disciples to "come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's Love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a prayer for the poor and forgotten.

FIRST SATURDAY Please join us every first Saturday of the month for Mass and Exposition starting at 8:45 a.m. with open Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until Benediction at 3:15 p.m. Sign up for an hour on the bulletin board or just stop in to visit our Lord in quiet prayer.

HOSTING THE PILGRIM STATUE OF MARY

The Pilgrim Virgin Statue is a blessed replica of Our Lady of Fatima. It is a traveling sacramental offered by The Legion of Mary, giving parishioners the opportunity to host a sacred representation of Mary in their home for two weeks at a time.

Sacred Hearts members of The Legion of Mary are custodians of the statue, coordinating the time of visitations between hosting families. They ensure a smooth transition and respectful handling of the statue.

A reverent atmosphere while hosting the statue of Mary is necessary to uphold the sanctity and spiritual significance of the statue. Choose a place of honor or a prominent location for the Mary statue that is conducive to prayer and reflection.

To enhance the atmosphere of reverence, The Legion of Mary provides appropriate decor and devotional literature to encourage daily personal and family devotions such as the Rosary, mindful reflections of gratitude and contemplation on the virtues and teachings of Mary.

Keep in mind that requesting to host the Pilgrim Statue of Mary requires thoughtful preparation and consideration of everyone involved for the safe and respectful transfer of this blessed sacramental from one family to the next.

Blessings and thanks to Carole and Roger Yoder for their many hours of personal time involved in providing the families of Sacred Hearts with such a loving service.
